

Chad Jenkins Band – Biography

Singer/songwriter Chad Jenkins' first solo record: VIDEO, is a story-driven collection of modern rock songs.

After graduating the University of the Arts in Philadelphia, Jenkins spent the next few years working as a cameraman on the Live Nation Concert Series, and on TV shows such as the Emmy nominated: Hoarding Buried Alive, Access Hollywood, and the Oprah Winfrey Network among others.

When his career was interrupted due to the sudden illness of a family member, Jenkins rediscovered a passion for songwriting. A year later, he assembled a veritable All-Star lineup of local musicians for the record.

Keeping with the album's title, several music videos were released, including one for "Awake," which broadcast on The Sound Chamber television show, Video Hits, and WCCA TV in Massachusetts.

Now, in support of the record and music videos, Jenkins formed an equally talented quartet for live performances. Booking dates available.

For more info and to hear the record, click:
www.chadjenkinsband.com/EPK

Socials: @ChadJenkinsBand